Master of Man Consultations

Congratulations on making the choice to accelerate your personal development! This is a challenging and rewarding journey and I look forward to being a part of your journey.

Once you have purchased your plan, please e-mail Tim@MasterofMan.com with a screenshot of your receipt, or forward your original receipt with the following information:

Name?

What is your key desire to achieve from our sessions (can be brief or detailed)?

You will also need to Download the Telegram messaging app and create an account if you don't already have one. Please provide your user ID or telephone number associated so I can contact you once I have verified everything.

If you have any other questions, please feel free to share them in your e-mail.

I will send you an additional form to complete once we are set up to collect client information I am required to keep record of along with establish the direction of our sessions and goals.

Again, I look forward to being a part of your journey and I'm excited to see you grow! The future version of you will look back and thank you for making the brave choice to seek growth.
